G.S.R. 831.—The following draft of certain rules which the Central Government proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by section 22 of the Rice-Milling Industry (Regulation) Act, 1958 (21 of 1958), is hereby published as required by sub-section (1) of that section for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby; and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 19th October, 1958.

Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date so specified will be taken into consideration by the Central Government.

DRAFT RULES

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Rice-Milling Industry (Regulation and Licensing) Rules, 1958.

(2) They shall come into force on the —————.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "Act" means the Rice-Milling Industry (Regulation) Act, 1958;
- (b) "Form" means a Form set forth in the Schedule to these rules;
- (c) "licence" means a licence granted under section 6 of the Act;
- (d) "permit" means a permit granted under section 5 of the Act.

3. Permits.—(1) Every application for a permit shall be in Form I.

(2) On receipt of an application in the prescribed form, the Central Government shall cause an investigation to be made through the licensing officer or any other officer appointed in this behalf for ascertaining whether the grant of the permit is necessary for ensuring an adequate supply of rice; and such investigation may, in addition to the matters specified in clauses (a) to (c) of sub-section (4) of section 5 of the Act, relate to the ascertainment of information regarding,—

- (a) the effect that the operation of the new or the defunct rice-mill may have on the local economy;
- (b) the pattern of trade and commerce in rice in the locality;
- (c) the reasons for the stoppage of operation in the case of a defunct rice-mill;
- (d) the necessity or otherwise for an addition to the productive capacity of the existing rice-mills in the locality;

- (e) whether hand-pounding industry in the locality is already well-organized and whether the establishment of a new rice-mill is likely to affect adversely that industry.
- (3) In granting a permit for the establishment of a new rice-mill preference shall be given to the sheller-type mill.
- (4) A permit granted under section 5 of the Act shall be in Form II.
- (5) Every person to whom a permit has been granted shall—
- (a) if it is for the establishment of a new rice-mill, establish the same within six months, or
- (b) if it is for recommencing rice-milling operation in a defunct rice-mill, recommence such operation within three months, from the date of grant of the permit or within such further period as the Central Government may allow.

4. Licences.—(1) An application for a licence may be made—

- (a) by the owner of a new rice-mill who has obtained a permit under section 5 of the Act, after he has established the mill within the prescribed period;
- (b) by the owner of a defunct rice-mill, after he has been granted a permit for recommencing milling operation; and
- (c) by the owner of an existing rice-mill, within such period after the commencement of the Act as may be notified by the Central Government in this behalf.

(2) Every application for a licence shall be in Form III and shall be accompanied by the treasury receipt evidencing payment of the prescribed fee.

(3) The fee payable for a licence shall be Rs. 5 and that for the renewal of a licence shall be Rs. 2.

(4) Every licence granted under section 6 of the Act shall be in Form IV, shall be valid until the 31st December of the year in which it is issued and may be renewed for one year at a time.

5. Duplicate Licence.—If the licensing officer is satisfied that a licence is defaced, lost, destroyed or otherwise rendered useless, he may on payment of a fee of Rs. 10 issue a duplicate licence.

6. Refusal to grant a Licence.—The licensing officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing and after giving an opportunity to the person concerned for stating his case, refuse to grant or renew a licence. A copy of the order shall also be communicated to the person concerned.

7. Deposit of Security.—(1) Every licensee shall within ten days from the date of grant of the licence deposit security of the value of Rs. 500 for the due performance of the conditions subject to which the licence is granted to him.

(2) The security referred to in sub-rule (1) may be in any of the following forms—

- (a) Demand Draft on the State Bank endorsed in favour of the licensing officer;
- (b) Deposit at call receipt of the State Bank endorsed in favour of the licensing officer;
- (c) Government securities at 5 per cent below market price or at face value, whichever is less endorsed in favour of the licensing officer;
- (d) National Savings Certificates and Treasury Receipts endorsed in favour of the licensing officer;
- (e) Post Office Saving Bank Pass Book, the account being pledged to the licensing officer.

8. Polishing of Rice.—It shall be a condition of every licence that the licensee shall not, except under a written permission from the licensing officer, remove more than 5 per cent or less than 3 per cent of bran.

9. Stay orders on Appeal.—The appellate officer before whom an appeal against a decision of the licensing officer under section 6 or section 7 of the Act is pending may, by order, direct that such decision shall not take effect pending the disposal of the appeal.

10. Accounts and returns.—(1) Every licensee shall maintain correct and true accounts in respect of his rice-mill in such form and manner as the licensing officer may specify.

(2) Every licensee shall submit to the licensing officer a return in Form V for every week ending with Saturday so as to reach the licensing officer within three-days of the close of the week.

11. General.—Every licensee shall be bound to—

- (a) furnish the licensing officer such information or statistics in relation to his mill as the licensing officer may require, and
- (b) give the licensing officer or any officer authorised under section 9 of the Act all facilities at all reasonable times to enter and inspect the rice-mill or the stocks of paddy or rice in his possession or custody and make samples thereof for examination and to inspect the accounts relating to the business.

12. Penalty.—A contravention of any of these rules shall be punishable under sub-section (2) of section 13 of the Act.
